1. Effective Behavior Strategies

Date/Time: January 21st (5:00pm-9:00pm) and 22nd (8:30am-5:00pm)

Grade Level: ALL

Instructor: Susan Perkins

Credits: 1

Course #: EDUC 2286-08

Location: Davis 107

Tuition: $145.00

The number of behavior concerns in the classroom continues to increase in frequency and intensity interfering with learning. In this workshop various behaviors and emotions exhibited by students and the potential causes and triggers will be discussed. Effective ways to work with all students in the classroom, providing a positive environment for students, and development of individual and classroom behavior management will be discussed and developed. Participants will be given a variety of tools to help students develop more positive behaviors in the classroom. A $3 materials fee will be due to the instructor on the first day of the workshop.

2. Beginning SMART™ Boards

Date/Time: February 5th & 12th (8:30am-5:00pm)

Grade level: ALL

Instructor: Shelley McKinney

Credits: 1

Course #: ITEC 2803-05

Location: Davis 111

Tuition: $145.00

Are you SMART Board challenged? This workshop will be small and individualized, allowing you to practice a variety of skills from setting up the equipment to creating lessons that you can use starting tomorrow! Please bring a flash drive the first day of class.

MASTER OF ARTS IN TEACHING (MAT)

The MASTER OF ARTS IN TEACHING (MAT) program at Friends University is designed for elementary and secondary teachers who wish to further enhance their performance in the classroom. The program offers an interdisciplinary field-based study of teaching and the learning process, based on the National Board for Professional Teaching Standards. This 18-month, 30-credit hour program is offered sequentially in a modular format. The program courses are taught by experienced faculty who are fully committed to their students' professional development. Most students qualify for enough financial aid to cover the entire cost of the program.

For more information, contact Patty Gingrich at (316) 295-5693 or (800) 794-6945 ext. 5693

3. Beginning Power Point™

Date/Time: February 5th and 12th (8:30am-5:00pm)

Grade Level: ALL

Instructor: Glenda VanSant

Credits: 1

Course #: ITEC 2517-08

Location: BTB Lab 3

Tuition: $145.00

Making flashy presentations for your classroom is much easier than you think! In this workshop you'll learn to choose layouts, design slides (using simple templates), and insert text, graphics, pictures, and sounds. You'll be able to animate your slides and use interesting transitions to make professional looking slide shows. When you finish, you'll be able to teach this tool to your students- or, at least, to understand what they're doing! You'll leave this workshop with one or more presentations to use immediately in the classroom. Please bring a flash drive the first day of class.

4. Using Picture Books/Six Trait

Date/Time: February 5th & 12th (8:30am-5:00pm)

Grade Level: ALL

Instructor: Amy Snodgrass

Credits: 1

Course#: EDUC 4755-01

Location: Davis 107

Tuition: $145.00

Are you hoping to add depth and excitement to your writing lessons? In this workshop you will discover ways to incorporate picture books into daily mini-lessons that focus on the Six Traits of Writing. You will gather ideas for engaging your students in exciting lessons and activities that foster enthusiasm for writing. In addition, you will have the opportunity to apply your learning by generating additional mini-lessons that can be put to use right away. Participants will walk away with a long list of ideas focusing on the six traits that can be implemented throughout the school year!

5. The Way They Learn – The Way We Teach

Date/Time: February 5th & 12th (8:30am-5:00pm)

Grade Level: ALL

Instructor: Beverly Hilton

Credits: 1

Course #: EDUC 4574-02

Location: Davis 109B

Tuition: $145.00

Teachers will understand the variety of ways students learn and will be able to modify instructional techniques to most effectively teach each student.

Instructor: Susan Perkins

Credits: 1

Course #: EDUC 1588-11

Location: Davis 109C

Tuition: $145.00

This workshop will include an overview of exceptionalities of special needs children and how to provide the necessary supports and modifications to promote success in the regular classroom. Easy and quick modifications and classroom structure ideas will be emphasized to encourage student success and achievement towards the goals of No Child Left Behind. Different styles and programs of inclusion will also be discussed. A discussion of strategies and techniques to help slow-learner students in the classroom will also be a focus of the workshop. Working with Para-educators in the classroom will also be discussed. A $3 materials fee will be due to the instructor on the first day of the workshop for additional supplies.

7. Advanced Publisher

Date/Time: March 4th (5:00pm-9:00pm) & 5th (8:30am-5:00pm)

Grade Level: ALL

Instructor: Rachel Nally

Credits: 1 or 2

Course #: ITEC 2806-03

Location: BTB Lab 2

Tuition: $145.00/credit hour

Creating classroom newsletters, calendars, brochures and forms are easier than you think! During this workshop, educators will learn ways to use Microsoft Publisher features in the classroom. Please bring a flash drive to save classroom projects. Those taking the workshop for 2 credit hours will be required to integrate 3 of the ideas into classroom lesson plans. Lesson plans will need to be turned in to receive credit.

8. Artist Journals for Teachers

Date/Time: March 4th (5:00pm-9:00pm) & 5th (8:30am-5:00pm)

Grade Level: ALL

Instructors: Ruth Lawlor

Credits: 1

Course #: ART 2231-05

Location: Davis 111

Tuition: $145.00

Starting an art journal is a powerful way to move beyond words in your daily writing practice. An art journal can be a record of your daily thoughts, a travel journal, an exercise or diet diary, a dream journal, a place where you jot down your goals or to-do lists or almost any record you'd like to keep in a notebook. Your journal pages may include finished art, sketches, or a collage of ideas. The instructor will lead participants in collage, painting and illustration techniques along with an overview of prompts and writing styles. A $10 materials fee will be due to the instructor the first day of the workshop. Participants will need to bring a sketchbook or a discarded book (in good condition), markers, scissors, one or two old magazines, glue and glue sticks and general art supplies. The following are not required but will make the journal more personal: copies of favorite pictures, images and words cut from magazines, ticket stubs and pieces of small printed materials.

9. Free and Friendly Websites in the Middle School and High School

Classroom

Date/Time: March 11th (5:00pm-9:00pm) & 12th (8:30am-5:00pm)

Instructor: Rachel Nally

Grade Level: MS/HS

Credits: 1 or 2

Course #: ITEC 2860-01

Location: BTB Lab 2

Tuition: $145.00/credit hour

Are you looking for new and exciting websites to incorporate into your curriculum? Find websites to incorporate that benefit the teacher as well as the student. (Those taking the workshop for 2 credit hours will be required to incorporate 5 websites into classroom projects. Lesson plans will need to be turned in to receive credit.)

10. Engineering Your Wellness: Staying on Track During the School Year

Date/Time: March 25th (5:00pm-9:00pm) & 26th (8:30am-5:00pm)

Grade Level: ALL

Instructor: Ruth Dey

Credits: 1 or 2

Course #: EDUC 1470-09

Location: Davis 114

Tuition: $145/credit hour

Feeling derailed during the school year? Does it seem you get low-grade infections at a certain time of the school year? This workshop is designed to help you stay on track. Learn how your conscious and unconscious programming has driven you to where you are today and step into the rest of your life and school year with skills that will guarantee your success. With a step-by-step approach, you will learn the most important tools for determining the path to a fresh and positive school year. Programs and activities will be presented to utilize in your school system at any level. Topics range from energy levels to technology wellness. Become proactive and acquire the skills you need to be the engineer of your own life.

PERFORMANCE LEARNING SYSTEMS (PLS)

Online Courses

For 40+ years, PLS has designed quality graduate teacher-education courses that enrich educators' teaching and promote multi-sensory and learning-rich environments. These practical courses offer skills and strategies that can be immediately applied to your classroom situation. PLS links all courses with the INTASC (Interstate New Teacher Assessment and Support Consortium) standards for teachers, on which the KSDE Professional Education Standards are based. These connections are documented in each PLS syllabus.
