Re::imagine your faith at Friends

Leaning into God's love for us, we move from places of fear, anxiety and oppression into lives of love, peace and freedom.

As a student who chooses to be involved in Campus Ministries, we encourage you to re::imagine your faith in the context of your college experience. This means identifying some of your core narratives, learning how to tell your story and considering who you are becoming. We provide an environment for you to lean into God's love and goodness and grow into the person you want to be as a follower of Jesus.

Throughout your college experience, we will equip you with tools, relationships and practices that will grow your faith and assist you as a life-long follower of Jesus. In particular, we will talk about what it means to recharge, repurpose, reconnect and re-engage.

:: Recharge

Affirming that God is good, we take time to take care of our bodies, minds, hearts and souls.

:: Repurpose

Looking at the people and world around us, we see through new lenses the beauty in the ordinary.

:: Reconnect

Believing in the strength of community to heal and transform us, we intentionally build connections with others.

:: Re-engage

As followers of Jesus, we are invited to participate with God in the world with generosity and hospitality.

guy\_chmielecki@friends.edu | 316-295-5488 | Davis 208

Guy joined the Friends University community during the summer of 2016. He is a happy husband and proud father of five beautiful kids. Guy has spent his entire career serving students and campus communities through various campus ministry roles. This is a response to God's leading in his life, and he is motivated by the fact that college years are some of the most formative in all of life. Guy earned a Doctorate of Ministry in Spiritual Formation and Leadership from George Fox Evangelical Seminary in 2005. Guy has also authored three books: Noise.Hurry.Crowds. On Creating Space for God Amidst the Chaos of Campus and Culture (Seedbed, '15); CAMPUS gODS: Exposing the Idols That Can Derail Your Present and Destroy Your Future (Seedbed, '13); and Shaping Their Future: Mentoring Students Through Their Formative College Years (Seedbed, '13). When he's not hanging out with college students, there's a good chance Guy can be found trying to keep up with his kids, enjoying some coffee and quiet moments with his wife or working out in the yard.

The Campus Ministries Office is located in room 214 of the Davis Administration Building. To learn about our various campus and community activities, contact any of the Campus Ministries staff or connect with us on social media.
